AN INVITATION to Join the Friends

By joining the Johns Hopkins University Friends of the Libraries, you provide critical current-use funds in support of resources and programming that benefit faculty and students and enrich and enliven the Hopkins and Baltimore communities.

Your membership gives you access to the worlds of wonder contained within our collections and connects you to the treasures that abound throughout the Sheridan Libraries and across Johns Hopkins University.

Membership benefits are cumulative: Members are entitled to all the benefits of their specific group as well as those of all the groups below that giving level.

Macksey Society
$5,000
- Invitations to behind-the-scenes tours of area libraries, museums, and private collections
- Invitation to a yearly salon with Professor Dick Macksey in the extraordinary seminar room

Hutzler Circle
$2,500
- Invitation to annual tea and lecture in the Hutzler Reading Room
- Membership and voting privileges in the Friends Acquisition Committee
- Exclusive event invitations, including meet and greet opportunities with visiting authors

Dean’s Circle
$1,000
- Invitation to the annual Dean’s Luncheon at the Johns Hopkins Club
- Curator-led tours of exhibits at Johns Hopkins
- Reciprocal benefits for Johns Hopkins University Museums

Bibliophile
$500+
- Invitations to exclusive preview events
- Borrowing privileges at the Milton S. Eisenhower Library

Curator
$250+
- Invitations to tours of university collections
- Insider’s newsletter from the Dean

Please make check payable to Friends of the Sheridan Libraries and mail to: Office of External Affairs, The Milton S. Eisenhower Library, 3400 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21218

For more information, contact 410-516-8327 or libraryfriends@jhu.edu