EVERGREEN MUSEUM & LIBRARY DIRECTOR'S TRIP
September 21–October 1, 2018

Dear Friends,

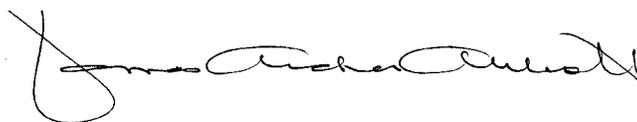

Please join me on a special, ten-day, nine-night exploration of Japan — focusing on the beautiful art, architecture, food, and culture. We will visit the futuristic capital city, Tokyo; the small, intimate mountain city of Nikko; the picturesque Lake Hakone; historic Kyoto; and modern Hiroshima.

As ongoing supporters with strong ties to the Johns Hopkins University Museums, we are offering you the opportunity to join us on this exclusive tour. The trip price is $8,350 per person based on ten travelers (land-only), of which $250 may be considered a tax deductible charitable contribution to Evergreen Museum & Library. As you will read in the following itinerary, the all-inclusive trip includes flights, accommodations based on double occupancy (the single supplement is $750), private ground transportation, extensive and personalized cultural activities and tours, and exceptional meals.

Please complete the enclosed Reservation Form and return it with your non-refundable deposit of $500 per person by May 1, after which time deposits cannot be refunded. Full payment for the trip is required by June 20. As with past trips, this program has already generated significant interest and the number of travelers is limited. Reservations will be recorded in the order that completed forms and deposits are received.

If you need additional information, please contact Nancy Powers at 410-516-0341 or npowers@jhu.edu.

Sincerely,

James Archer Abbott

Proposed Itinerary

Friday, September 21-Saturday, September 22 | Lunch, Snacks (in-flight), Dinner

Depart from Washington Dulles Airport at 12:35 p.m. on Friday, September 21, aboard United Airlines flight 803. Fly nonstop to Tokyo's Narita Airport, arriving at 3:35 p.m. local time on Saturday, September 22. At the airport, you will be met by your local, bilingual tour leader, who will remain with you for the duration of the trip. A private coach bus will ferry you to your four-star hotel in Tokyo. After settling in, enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant where you can get to know your tour leader and fellow travelers.

Sunday, September 23 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Explore Tokyo, beginning with the Imperial Palace, which is home to Japan's ruling family. Though the palace dates only to 1968, the location is sacred and storied, as it was once the site of Edo Castle, from which the Tokugawa shogunate ruled Japan. Next you have tickets for Tokyo's newest landmark—Tokyo Skytree. The vertiginous communications tower is the world's tallest tower and second-tallest structure. From its observation deck, you can enjoy views that, in clear weather, stretch all the way to Mount Fuji. Then head to the Asakusa District for a visit to the iconic Senso-ji Temple and Nakamise Arcade. Finish the day at the Yamatane Museum of Art, which houses some 1,800 works by prominent figures in modern Japanese art, including Taikan Yokoyama, Shoen Uemura, and Gyokudo Kawai. Enjoy lunch and dinner at local restaurants.

Monday, September 24 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

After breakfast, board a private coach for a morning at Tokyo National Museum, which houses the largest collection of Japanese art in world, with displays covering everything from samurai gear to woodblock prints. After lunch, the coach will take you to the Meiji Shrine, at the end of the Omotesando, the so-called Champs-Elysees of Tokyo. Next, visit the Nezu Museum. Originally opened in 1941, the museum's collection of more than 7,400 Japanese and East Asian works of art includes seven works designated National Treasures and 87 pieces considered important Cultural Properties. Enjoy dinner at a local restaurant before ascending to the top of the Mori Tower, which houses the Mori Art Museum, a contemporary art gallery that offers stunning views of the city. Return by coach to the hotel.

Tuesday, September 25 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Depart by coach for a visit to Nikkō National Park, which contains stunning scenery, both natural and manmade. First stop will be the Shrines and Temples of Nikkō. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the complex of sacred buildings includes the Nikkō Toshogu Shrine, which was built in 1617 as the final resting place for the founder of Japan's last feudal military government; the Kyozō, a revolving library that holds 7,000 sacred Sutra; and exquisitely ornate Yomeimon Gate. After lunch, it's a quick hop to Lake Chuzenji and the Kegon Waterfall, two of Japan's most famous natural wonders. Then it's back to Tokyo for dinner and rest.

Wednesday, September 26 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Depart via coach for the scenic Fuji Five Lakes region. Begin at the Itchiku Kubota Art Museum, a showcase for the famed textile artist's many masterful kimonos. Wander the museum's gardens and enjoy a traditional tea service in the artist's former workshop. Then visit the Hakone Open-Air Museum, Japan's first open air sculpture park, which boasts works by Rodin, Moore, and Miro. Bask in the region's majestic scenery on a lunch cruise on Lake Ashi, and ride the Hakone ropeway, an aerial tramway that provides spectacular views of the surrounding mountains, including Mount Fuji. Dinner and lodgings in the nearby town of Hakone.

Thursday, September 27 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

A bullet train (shinkansen) will deliver you to Kyoto, Japan's ancient capital and its enduring cultural center. From there you'll venture to the nearby city of Nara where you will enjoy lunch and visit the Tōdai-ji Temple complex, home to several iconic structures, including the Nandaimon gate (circa 1199) and the Tōdai-ji, which is both the world's largest wooden structure and home to the 550-ton Great Buddha statue. The adjacent Todaiji Museum offers important context. Return to Kyoto for dinner and overnight stay.

Friday, September 28 | Breakfast, Lunch

Start your exploration of Kyoto with a trip to Nijo Castle, which was built in 1603, and the Kyoto Imperial Palace, which is noted for its striking simplicity. Next up is Sanjusangendo Temple, the longest wooden building in Japan, which features 1,001 gold statues of Kannon, the Goddess of Mercy. After lunch at a local restaurant, marvel at the Kiyomizudera Temple, which is perched daringly on a steep hillside. Approach the temple from Teapot Lane, which is lined with quaint shops selling Kiyomizu ceramics. Amble down Sannen-zaka and Ninen-zaka, two charming streets that should be aflame with maple leaves during your visit, to complete the experience.

Saturday, September 29 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

With preserved streets and breathtaking views of the Hozu River, Kyoto's Arashiyama District is a must-see. Perhaps its most popular attraction is its towering Bamboo grove. From the grove, it's a quick walk to Tenryū-ji Temple and its 500-year-old garden. After lunch at a local restaurant you'll visit one of the country's most-famous sites: the Golden Pavilion of Kinkakuji Temple. End this day of zen at Ryoanji Temple and its world-renowned rock garden.

Sunday, September 30 | Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Board the bullet train for a 90 minute ride to Hiroshima. After a quick trip to Miyajima, the famed island with its tame deer and Great Torii gate, you'll return to the mainland via ferry for a visit to the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum and Park. In English and Japanese, the park interprets the events leading up to the nuclear bombing of August 6, 1945, as well as its aftermath. From there, you'll have lunch at a local restaurant and then return to Kyoto on the bullet train.

Monday, October 1 | Dinner (in-flight)

Enjoy Kyoto at leisure before hopping a private coach to Osaka Kansai Airport. United flight 34, departs at 4:50 p.m. and arrives in San Francisco at 10:35 a.m. In San Francisco, you will connect to United flight 727, which departs at 12:40 p.m. and arrives at Dulles at 9 p.m.

Eligibility

Open to Members of the Johns Hopkins University Museums only. Membership information may be found on the Registration Form.
