

LECTURES at HOMEWOOD

HOMWOOD MUSEUM // FALL 2011 // THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

HISTORY in THE LANDSCAPE

BALTIMORE'S GREAT ARCHITECTURE LECTURE SERIES

MONDAY, OCTOBER 10

Privies: Necessary & Sufficient

Michael Olmert // Professor of English, University of Maryland, College Park

Learn about the architecture, patterns of use, folklore, and even literary presence of privies in the late 18th and early 19th century Tidewater region.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 17

Paradigms of Democracy: Gardening & Agricultural Pursuits of Maryland's Founding Families

Barbara Paca // Landscape Architect and Historian, Annapolis, MD and New York, NY

Discover how our Founding Fathers fused orchards, gardens, vineyards, and other agricultural features with residential architecture to create private utopias.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24

Architecture of Delight: The American Garden Folly

Outerbridge Horsey // Architect, Washington, DC

Explore historic and historically-inspired follies and garden buildings in America, from the 18th century to the present.

TIME & LOCATION

All lectures will be held at 6pm in Gilman Hall 50 (Marjorie M. Fisher Hall), with 5pm receptions at Homewood Museum, both on the Johns Hopkins Homewood campus.

REGISTRATION

FREE program. Registration is requested. Walk-in registration based on availability. To register, call 410.516.5589 or email homewoodmuseum@jhu.edu.

Continuing education credits are available.

PARKING

Special event parking is available at the University Baptist Church parking lot.

SPONSOR

This program is made possible by Aurelia G. Bolton, with additional support from Lewis Contractors, and Adam and Fredye Gross.

It is presented in association with AIA Baltimore Architecture Month. Visit www.aiabalt.com for details on the many events of Baltimore Architecture Month.

BALTIMORE PAINTED FURNITURE

INSIGHT SYMPOSIUM

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1:30PM

Painted furniture was the home-decorating craze of the young American nation, and nowhere more so than in Baltimore. Join us for an intimate exploration of the fascinating history and continuing influence of this celebrated artistic tradition, focusing on recently-restored examples from the Homewood Museum collection.

Introductory Remarks

William Voss Elder III // Curator Emeritus, Decorative Arts, The Baltimore Museum of Art

“Celebrated in their Profession”: The Painted Furniture of the Finlay Brothers and Federal Baltimore, 1800–1840
Gregory Weidman // Curator, Hampton National Historic Site

Please Don't Sit on the Art: Issues in the Conservation of Painted Furniture

Deborah Duerbeck Parr // Independent Conservator, Burkittsville, MD

From the Artisan's Perspective: The Influence of Baltimore Painted Furniture

David Wiesand // Furniture Craftsman, Baltimore, MD

TIME & LOCATION

1:30 to 5pm at Homewood Museum, with a reception and hors d'oeuvres beginning at 5pm.

REGISTRATION

Symposium Fee: $30; $25 Homewood Members; $15 full-time students with valid ID. Fee includes lectures, coffee break, and reception.

Registration is required and limited to 40. To register, visit www.museums.jhu.edu or call 410.516.5589.

Participants are invited to spend the morning exploring the outstanding collection of American decorative arts at the nearby Baltimore Museum of Art (free admission; restaurant; www.artbma.org).

SPONSOR

This program is made possible, in part, by Forbes Manor.

LECTURES at HOMEWOOD

HOMWOOD MUSEUM // FALL 2011 // THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Homewood

MUSEUMS.JHU.EDU | 410.516.5589

The Johns Hopkins University
3400 N. Charles Street
Baltimore, MD 21218

Cover: The William Paca Garden in Annapolis restored to its 18th century splendor. Courtesy Historic Annapolis Foundation

Inside: Recreated Baltimore painted chair by McLain Weisand Custom Design Furniture

Back: Baltimore painted cradle, c. 1805. Collection of Homewood Museum

HISTORY IN THE LANDSCAPE

Baltimore's Great Architecture
Lecture Series 2011

October 10, 17, 24 // 6pm Lectures
5pm Receptions // FREE program

BALTIMORE PAINTED FURNITURE

InSIGHT Symposium

November 11 // 1:30–5pm,
followed by a reception

Join Today!

Membership is the best way to discover Homewood Museum
www.museums.jhu.edu/support
410.516.6710

JOHNS HOPKINS
UNIVERSITY

 Printed on paper containing 100% recycled content with 50% post-consumer waste.