LONGWOOD GARDENS One of the world's great gardens, Longwood's story is one of legacy, innovation, and stewardship. Its gardens are a living expression of all that its founder, Pierre S. du Pont, found inspiring, meaningful, and beautiful. From the intricate fountain systems to the meticulous gardens to the architectural grandeur, awe-inspiring discoveries await at every turn. Years before it was a public garden, the land on which Longwood Gardens stands was home to the native Lenni Lenape tribe and Quaker farmers. Since then, the land has undergone significant transformation to become the magnificent property that is enjoyed by more than a million guests each year.

A LONGWOOD CHRISTMAS Christmas is a special season at Longwood, involving vibrant illuminations and extensive horticultural displays that are both nostalgic and inventive. Upon arrival, enjoy a guided tour of the grounds that will be festooned with traditional holiday favorites from poinsettias to pinecones to snowflakes, as well as the unique forms found in the grand Conservatory. Then, explore on your own past floating orbs, festive firs, and colorful, glowing fountains. Warm up by welcoming fire pits, listen to carolers, and bask in the wonder of A Longwood Christmas. Before you return to Baltimore, use your $20 voucher to enjoy a range of meal options in the cafeteria or browse the gift shop for unique gifts for those hard-to-buy-for loved ones on your list.

PLEASE DETACH AND SEND TO Evergreen Museum & Library, 4545 North Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21210. For more information: 410.516.0341 or museums@jhu.edu.
